

Network of Migrant Women living in Ireland

invites you to

The maiden edition of Young Migrant Women Forum

AkiDwa is a non-governmental organization with charitable status established in August 2001 by a group of African women for all migrant women irrespective of their national/ethnic background, tradition, religious beliefs, socio-economic or legal status.

YOUNG MIGRANT WOMEN FORUM is a project aimed at targeting all migrant women between the ages of 18 – 30 irrespective of their background.

AIM: To bridge the gap already created between the older migrant women and their children (-18s). To build, inform, encourage, educate, empower and inspire these young women. To enhance and develop their skills because they have got talents!

ACTIVITIES: Leadership development, talent hunting, music, Drama/Singing, Fashion and Beauty, Modeling, art and craft, creative writing, Healthy Living, Sports etc.

OUTCOME: Vibrant, talented, educated and competitive young women who are ready and willing to make mark in Irish history and beyond.

Don't miss this! Refreshments are provided!!
